

Myths and Realities:

A series of public debates

and Myths

12 | Sustainable Lifestyles: Great Theory, Impossible Practice

Tuesday 7th February 2012, 6.30 – 8.00pm
(followed by pay bar) Tickets £7.50, £5 concessions

Pressure on the world's resources means we are increasingly encouraged to consume less power, water, even food. But few of us make more than minimal efforts to change our own behaviour. Join leading academics to discuss how evidence can support the development of policies which help us move toward more sustainable lifestyles.

- Chair: Drs Astrid Wissenburg, Director of Partnerships and Communications, ESRC
- Ian Christie, Research Fellow and Coordinator, Sustainable Lifestyles Research Group, Centre for Environmental Strategy, University of Surrey
- Professor Dale Southerton, Director Sustainable Practices Research Group, University of Manchester

Book your place via the British Library's website:
www.bl.uk/whatson or for more information contact:
social-sciences-events@bl.uk

This series of debates will look at significant public and social issues, challenge some of the common myths and assumptions we make, and show the role social science plays to explain what is happening and point the way to solutions.

Venue: British Library, 96 Euston Road, London NW1 2DB

Supported by:

ACADEMY
of SOCIAL SCIENCES

