11. An Annual General Meeting and an Extraordinary General Meeting called for the passing of a Special Resolution shall be called by at least twenty-one clear days' notice. All other Extraordinary General Meetings shall be called by at least fourteen clear days' notice but a General Meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed;

- 11.1 in the case of an Annual General Meeting, by all the Members entitled to attend and vote at such meeting; and
 - 11.2 in the case of any other meeting by a majority in number of Members having the right to attend and vote at such a meeting, being a majority together holding not less than 95 per cent of the total voting rights at that meeting of all the Members.
12. A General Meeting may also be called by shorter notice if otherwise permitted by the Acts.
 13. The notice shall specify the time and place of the meeting, the general nature of the business to be transacted, the method of appointing a proxy and, in the case of an Annual General Meeting, shall specify the meeting as such.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

14. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present. Twelve persons entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted, each being a Member shall constitute a quorum.
15. If a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such time and place as the Council may determine.
16. The Chair of the Council or in his or her absence some other Council Member nominated by the Council shall preside as chair of the general meeting, but if neither the Chair nor such nominated member of Council (if any) be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting and willing to act, the other Council Members present shall elect one of their number to be chair.
17. The chair may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present, (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
18. When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.
19. A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless, before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands, a poll is duly demanded. Subject to the provisions of the Acts, a poll may be demanded:

- 19.1 by the Chair; or
- 19.2 by at least two members of Council present in person or by proxy; or

21. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn before the poll is taken but only with the consent of the chair of the meeting. The withdrawal of a demand for a poll shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand for the poll was made.
22. A poll shall be taken as the chair of the meeting directs and in accordance with the Operating Rules and the chair may appoint scrutineers (who need not be Members) and fix a time and place for declaring the results of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded.
23. A poll demanded on the election of a chair or on a question of adjournment shall be taken immediately. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either immediately or at such time and place as the chair directs. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll is demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the results of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.
24. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chair of the meeting shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he or she may have.

26. Members may participate in or hold a General Meeting by means of conference telephone or similar telephone communications equipment so that all persons participating in the General Meeting can hear and speak to each other. Participation by such means shall be deemed to constitute presence in person and business so transacted shall be effective for all purposes as that of a General Meeting duly convened and held with such persons physically present. The General Meeting shall be deemed to have been held at the place where the largest number of Members are present in person.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

Any organisation may from time to time revoke any such instrument and authorise another individual in his or her place.

No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of 12 months from the date of its execution.
32. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.
33. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chair of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

34. A vote given or poll demanded by the duly authorised representative of a Member organisation shall be valid unless a notice of determination of the authority of such authorised representative is received by the Academy at the Office (or at such other place within the United Kingdom as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting) before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote is given or the poll demanded or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) the time appointed for taking the poll.
35. A vote given or poll demanded in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid unless notice in writing of the death or insanity of the Member or revocation of the proxy or the authority under which the proxy was executed shall have been received at the Office (or at such other place within the United Kingdom as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting) before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used or the poll demanded or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise and on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) the time appointed for taking the poll.
