Open Access and Society: Impact and Engagement

A Taylor & Francis Seminar, in association with ALPSP and the Academy of Social Sciences

17 June 2014 | Hotel BLOOM!, Rue Royale 250, 1210 Saint-Josse-ten-Noode, Brussels

Agenda

10.30 Refreshments

11.00 Welcome and Opening Remarks
   David Green, Global Publishing Director, Taylor & Francis
   Stephen Anderson, Executive Director, Academy of Social Sciences

11.15 Session: The Evidence Base
   Chair: Ian White, Journals Publisher, Taylor & Francis
   • T&F 2014 OA Author Survey – what are researchers’ perceptions of mandates? | Will Frass, Research Executive, Taylor & Francis
   • Outcomes from the T&F and ALPSP 2014 survey of societies | Audrey McCulloch, Chief Executive ALPSP
   • Usage half-life and Green OA | David Green, Global Publishing Director, Taylor & Francis
   • Q&A of all speakers

12.00 Session: Open Access and Policy
   Chair: David Green, Global Publishing Director, Taylor & Francis
   • Horizon 2020, scholarly communication and Science 2.0: the EU perspective | Jean-Claude Burgelman, Head of Unit A6 ‘Science policy, foresight & data’ in RTD, European Commission
   • The Funder Perspective | Johannes Fournier, Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft (DFG); Steven Hill, Head of Research Policy, Higher Education Funding Council for England (HEFCE); Ulf Kronman, Coordinator of OpenAccess.se, National Library of Sweden
   • The global scene | Vicky Gardner, Open Access Publisher, Taylor & Francis
   • Q&A of all speakers

13.15 Buffet Lunch

14.30 Panel Session: Planning for Impact and Engagement
   Chair: Tracy Roberts, Editorial Director, Taylor & Francis
   • The publisher perspective | Gillian Howcroft, eProducts Director, Taylor & Francis
   • An overview of CHORUS and FundRef | Ed Pentz, Executive Director, CrossRef
   • The institutional perspective | Colin Talbot, Professor of Government, University of Manchester
   • The society perspective | Andrew Massey, Vice-President, European Group for Public Administration; Pierre Rasmont, Editor in Chief, Annales de la Société entomologique de France (N.S.): International Journal of Entomology
   • Q&A of all speakers

15.30 Tea / Coffee Break

16.00 Closing Remarks and Group Discussion

16.30 Cocktail Reception

Register your interest in attending bit.ly/tf-brussels
Open Access and Society: Impact and Engagement

A Taylor & Francis Seminar, in association with ALPSP and the Academy of Social Sciences

17th June 2014 | Hotel BLOOM!, Brussels

#OAandsociety

Getting to the venue
The Seminar will take place in the Hotel BLOOM! in Belgium. Please find below instructions for how to arrive at the venue.

Hotel BLOOM!
Rue Royale 250
1210 Brussels
Belgium
http://www.hotelbloom.com/location/location-en.html

By Rail
The nearest rail connection is Gare de Bruxelles-Nord (North Station), a 10-15 minute walk away, or 5-10 minutes by taxi.

By Eurostar/Thalys
The Eurostar and Thalys station is Gare de Bruxelles-Midi (South Station), 3 km from the hotel. There are direct rail connections between the North and South stations. Alternatively, take Metro line 2 or 6 from the South Station to Botanique.

By Metro, Bus and Tram
Hotel BLOOM! is just 200 metres away from Botanique Metro station, tram and bus stop.

By Plane
Brussels Airport is 12 km or 25 minutes by taxi with normal traffic. There are direct rail connections between Brussels Airport and the North Station (see above for directions from Gare de Bruxelles-Nord). There is also a shuttle bus from Brussels Airport to Gare de Bruxelles-Schuman, 10 minutes to the hotel by taxi or 15 minutes by Metro.

By Car
There is private car parking available at the hotel accessible via Rue Musin 1. Information about parking rates can be found at: